

COVID-19: In-person Precautions

The coronavirus (COVID-19) continues to evolve worldwide, and I want you to know that I value everyone's health and safety as a top priority.

Measures I am taking for you -

- I have been fully vaccinated since May 15, 2021, and boosted on 12/9/21. I can provide proof with vaccination card.
- If I, anyone in my household, or who I've come in close contact is feeling ill or tests positive for Covid-19, I will re-schedule our in-person appointment.
- If I, anyone in my household, or who I've come in close contact tests positive for Covid-19 within 14 days after our session I will contact you immediately.
- I will always wear a face-covering during in-person client sessions.
- I will take an at-home Covid test the morning of all appointments that we have scheduled and contact you with the results. If I am positive, I will re-schedule our appointment.

What I ask of you -

- Please show me proof of vaccination.
- If you, anyone in your household, or who you've come in close contact is feeling ill or tests positive for Covid-19, please contact me to reschedule your appointment.
- If you, anyone in your household, or who you've come in close contact tests positive for Covid-19 within 14 days after our session please contact me immediately.
- Please always wear a face-covering during in-person client sessions and ensure that anyone in your household wears a face covering.
- Please take an at-home Covid test the morning of all appointments that we have scheduled and have the result ready when I contact you. If you are positive, we will re-schedule your appointment.

Weather permitting, I may ask you to open the windows in the space where we are working to increase ventilation and fresh air.

If these precautions aren't adhered to, I reserve the right to cancel our appointment, leave the session, and/or cancel any future scheduled sessions. There are no refunds.

Thank you so much for your patience during these extraordinary times. I appreciate your understanding as we all navigate the many changes involved in negotiating this pandemic.

Stay safe and if you have any questions at all, please email me at info@spacebykim.com

Warmly,
Kim
